Miss Sara Whitfield, who has been spending some time in Thomasville, Ga., arrived in Ocala last Monday. Miss Whitfield stopped over in Jacksonville during the fair and took an important part in the Christian Endeavor meeting. She sang several solos and received numerous congratulations about her sweet singing. She joined her mother at this place and they have gone to Tampa, which in future they will make their home.

Infant mortality is something frightful. Nearly one-quarter die before they reach one year, one-third before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen! The timely use of White's Cream Vermifuge would save a majority of these precious lives. Price 25 cents. Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

To The People of Ocala.

The Sheridan-Cochrane entertainment on next Saturday night is the result of an effort to organize a Lyceum course in Ocala for the season and upon its success depends the fate of that effort.

If you wish the most classical in music and poetry for your entertainment then come out and help us to make it a success. Very truly, J. VARN.

Death of an Old and Honored Citizen.

William P. Trantham was born at Cheraw, S. C., Nov. 3, 1838, died in this city Nov. 25, 1901.

In his death an old land mark is removed from our midst.

Mr. Trantham was a son of Mr. John Trantham, one of the early and perhaps the first merchant of Ocala.

When the subject of this sketch first came to Ocala, he was a boy just entering his teens. Of those he met here only two survive, General and Mrs. Robert Bullock.

Mr. Trantham came to Ocala in 1850 and saw this city grow from a few scattering log houses to its present size.

He was the eldest Mason in the city. He saw all those who joined the lodge when he did cross over the silent river into the mysterious realms beyond.

At the breaking out of the civil war Mr. Trantham was a drug clerk, and like all the young men of that period promptly responded to the call for troops and enlisted in the First Florida Cavalry and throughout that conflict did faithful service with the army in Tennessee.

At the end of the war he returned to Ocala and re-entered business and for a long time conducted the principal drug store here.

He served several terms on the city council and was several times elected collector of revenue for the county and left that responsible office with a clean balance sheet. The letter he received signed by the governor and comptroller complimenting him on his splendid record, he prized very highly, and, as legacy, is prized also very highly by his family and his friends.

He was twice married, his second wife surviving him. By his first marriage he leaves two children, Mr. Will Trantham, who now resides in New York, and Mrs. R. E. Yonge, jr., of this city. He leaves also a brother and sister.

Religious services were conducted by Rev. C. M. Gray, of the Episcopal church, at the residence, and his remains were laid to rest in the old cemetery Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock under the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Masonic fraternity.

The Confederate Veterans of Marion Camp No. 56, as a mark of respect and in obedience to his last wish marched in a body and formed a part of the funeral procession, and at the request of their departed comrade deposited a Confederate flag in his grave along side of the Masonic emblems. "Requiescat in pace."

The Confederate battle flag was deposited in the grave at Mr. Trantham's own request, to be accompanied with the following lines by Henry Lyden Flash, in the "Confederate Cross of Honor":

All this, and more, this magic cross
Recalls to heart and brain;
Beneath its mystic influence
The dead past lives again.
And friends who take a parting look
When I am laid to rest,
Will see, beside the Cross of Christ,
This cross upon my breast.

Death of Mr. J. J. H. Gaskin.

The death of the above named gentleman occurred early last Monday morning at the home of his son, Mr. W. S. Gaskin, in this city.

Mr. Gaskin has been quite feeble for sometime. He was 78 years old and was born in Williamsburg, S. C. He came to Florida nearly thirty-five years ago and remained about ten years. He then went back to his home in South Carolina. He was a gallant Confederate soldier.

In 1886 he returned to Florida and has made his home with his son in this city ever since.

The funeral took place at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. C. E. Powell, of Missouri. The body was laid to rest in the old cemetery.

Mr. Gaskin leaves, besides his son in this city, two sons living in South Carolina, and one daughter, Mrs. M. J. Godwin, of Leroy.

Recommends it to Trainmen.

G. H. Hausen, Lima, O., Engineer L. E. W. R. R. writes: "I have been troubled a great deal with backache. I was induced to try Foley's Kidney Cure, and one bottle entirely relieved me. I gladly recommend it to any one, especially my friends among the trainmen, who are usually similarly afflicted." Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

Death of Mrs. Vierow.

Tuesday afternoon about 3 o'clock Mrs. Anna Eliza Vierow died very suddenly. She and her husband came to Ocala from New York about a month ago and rented the Owen's cottage in the fourth ward. They came for the winter.

Mrs. Vierow's death was caused by heart failure. She was sixty-three years old. Her remains were shipped to New York for burial.

Constipation means the accumulation of waste matter that should be discharged daily, and unless that is done, the foul matter is absorbed and poisons the system. Use Herbine to bring about regularity of the bowels. Price 50 cents. Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

Progressive Salmagundi Party.

Last Friday night Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Zewadski entertained about thirty young people at a salmagundi party, complimentary to their son, Guy, who left on Wednesday for Washington. All sorts of games were played and the entire evening was one of merriment and pleasure. Mrs. Carrie Long and Miss Susie Barco assisted Mrs. Zewadski in entertaining the guests. The prize for the most games won was tied for by Bessie Porter and Minnie Barco, of Crystal river, and in drawing straws for same, the former was the fortunate one. Charlie Gray won the boy's prize.

Refreshments were served at 10:30 o'clock, shortly after which the guests bade good-bye to their host, after voting the evening one of most delightful ones ever spent.

Says He Was Tortured.

"I suffered such pain from corns I could hardly walk," writes H. Robinson, Hillsborough, Ill., but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured them. Acts like magic on sprains, bruises, cuts, sores, scalds, burns, ulcers, boils. Perfect healer of skin diseases and piles. Cure guaranteed by Anti-Monopoly Drug Store. 25c. 2

Opening a Bank Account.

(Hawkins' New Catechism on Business) [CONTINUED FROM LAST WEEK.] An introduction will follow to the paying teller, who will take your first deposit. Before handing money to this officer it is necessary to make out a "deposit ticket," which is a memorandum slip showing the amount of the deposit and its nature, whether in coin, currency or checks. The date and your name is added.

This ticket is handed to the teller, with the money, who sees that the amount corresponds, and then enters it to your credit in a small "pass book," which is given to every depositor, except those living out of town, who send deposits by mail. On request, the teller will also give you a book of blank checks.

Where considerable business is done with a bank, it is usual to leave the pass book at least once a month to be balanced. When the book is returned the cancelled checks accompany it.

MUNROE & CHAMBLISS, Bankers, Ocala, Fla.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We understand some one is trying to imitate our 666

for chill and fever.

This is a poor way to do business to say the least of it.

When you try to imitate another preparation it is the strongest endorsement you could give it, in the eyes of all intelligent people, and I hope the people of Ocala will continue to take for chill and fever, and accept no substitute.

666

Yours respectfully,

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofula—as ugly as ever since time immemorial.

It causes bunches in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

"A bunch appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was lanced, and became a running sore. I went into a general decline. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed, and I have never had any trouble of the kind since." Mrs. K. T. SNYDER, Troy, Ohio.
